NOAH'S SOMS BEFORE THE MAYOR.

Shem, Japheth, and Ham Represented in the Police Court-No Fireworks To-Day in Swansboro'-Today's Music at Presbyterian Church

Justice John had a Manchester youth efore him in the Richmond Police Court vesterday morning for throwing stones on the street, and his Honor looked very sour when the case was called. The Justice fined the lad, and as he could not pay out he went to the pen. After court Justice John called the boy to his private office and gave him a lecture, saying, among other things, that he could not allow Manchester boys to make Richmond policemen run as this boy had done, That was against his rules. Richmond boys made them run enough, without being helped by Manchester lads. After that he let him go.

The little son of Mr. C. A. Rex was hurt badly about the face yesterday by a cannon-cracker exploding in his hand. Dr. T. P. Mathews was called and treated the lad. It is feared that the little fellow's eyes are permanently injured. Policeman Alvis, of Swansboro', says he will not allow any firecrackers to be fired in his town to-day.

ALL NOAH'S SONS THERE. Mayor Maurice had a very good at-tendance on his court of justice yester-day, dispensing the commodity to the sons of Shem. Ham, and Japheth. The sons of Shem came first.

Joseph Oppelman; Philip, his kinsman, and Lewis Hankins, were charged with induiging in a fight on the street yesterday morning. After giving his attention to the dozen witnesses who appeared, and two lawyers, his Honor fined Philip 32 and discharged the other men.

Next the sons of Japheth came—Jack

Jones and Melville Thorp—charged, also, with fighting. But they had come to a settlement between them, and were allowed to go with the admonition to sin no more.

Last of all, came the descendant of Ham. He was Sims Scott, the barber. He fired off a pistol in his place to frightby throwing poperackers in the shop. He was let off with payment of costs.

After court, the Mayor hied himself to Buckingham' to spend the Christmas. ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN.
